| agree | disagree | uncertain | I have seen your fruit for the past few years and believe that you have been following Jesus Christ.  |
| agree | disagree | uncertain | I do not believe in a congregationalist form of government where the congregation or board make final determinations as to the direction of the Church, but I do believe that those matters are guided by Jesus Christ through His ministry.  |
| agree | disagree | uncertain | The issue before us is whether the congregation or the ministry administer the government of God in the Church. Since we have only recently been revisiting the subject of government and our past beliefs on this subject, I believe I personally need more time to study and pray about the subject in order to come to a definite conviction one way or the other. |
